

WORSHIP

We all worship something. We all look toward something beyond ourselves and long for it. What do you worship? The Greek word for worship is “proskenuo.” It means, literally, “to turn and kiss.” It implies turning away from ourselves and turning toward what we desire beyond ourselves. When we do so in an ultimate way, we worship.

The Late Archbishop of Canterbury, William Temple, described worship in this way:

- To worship is to quicken the conscience by the holiness of God
- To feed the mind with the truth of God
- To purge the imagination by the beauty of God
- To open the heart to the love of God
- To devote the will to the purpose of God

Let us now prepare to worship God.

“His worshipers must worship in spirit and in truth.”

John 4:24

SEVEN MARKS OF A DISCIPLE

At the heart of this parish is God's call and challenge to be disciples of Jesus. The seven marks of a disciple are:

1. One who witnesses to an intentional faith as modeled in the Baptismal Covenant. (Book of Common Prayer, pg. 304)
2. One who keeps the Sabbath and commits to attending worship every Sunday.
3. One who honors the tithe as the biblical standard of faithful financial giving to the Church.
4. One who prays and reads the Bible daily.
5. One who participates regularly in a Covenant Group as a means of personal support in community.
6. One who uses his/her spiritual gifts in the work of the upbuilding of the Church.
7. One who reaches out to others with the love of Christ.

If you are interested in these Christian practices, or would like more information, please see Maly.

MUSIC MINISTRY

AWAKE, MY SOUL, AND SING

Each generation believes that the controversies of the day are the most devastating ever. Today's traditional hymn at the 10:30 a.m. service, #525 "The Church's one foundation," reminds us that controversy will always be with us. The hymn was written by the Reverend Samuel John Stone in 1866 as a response to the Anglican bishop of Natal in South Africa. This bishop wrote extensively on the Bible and challenged many firmly held beliefs including authorship of the Old Testament. He was accused widely of undermining the foundations of Christian faith.

Stone regarded the bishop's views as heresies and in response he wrote this hymn, among others. "The Church's one foundation" points to the controversy with the line, "Though with a scornful wonder men see her sore oppressed, by schisms rent asunder, by heresies distressed."

The tune was written by Samuel Sebastian Wesley in 1868.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

VACATION BIBLE CAMP 2008

Vacation Bible Camp starts Monday, August 4. For a whole week, from 9:00 a.m. to 12:00 noon, we will have a Beach

Party as we go surfing through the Scriptures. We welcome all children age three and over to Camp, with kids entering 6th grade or older acting as counselors-in-training. Camp fees are $40 for children age 3-11 and scholarships are available. Registration closes on July 13.

For more detailed information or to register online visit www.sttims.org, or pick up a registration form at the back of the church.

KID MUSIC

Parents and children are invited to join Music Director Peter Sammel each Wednesday at 5:15 p.m. for a joyful half-hour of music and rhythm play.

Even the youngest children will enjoy singing simple (and sometimes silly) songs, playing drums and other instruments, and moving their bodies.

Class ends at 5:45 p.m., just in time to enjoy the Parish Dinner.

OUTREACH

FISHES AND LOAVES

Fishes and Loaves is our hands-on support ministry to families welcoming new babies or facing a medical crisis or other challenges.

This ministry makes God’s love tangible by offering practical help such as meals, grocery shopping, playdates, and childcare. It also provides ample opportunity for everyone in the parish to be a blessing to others.

If you can double your favorite recipe and provide dinner to a family, or spare some time to help, contact Annett Inacker-Trail at (650) 988-8042 or annett_trail@yahoo.com.

REMEMBER THE LOVE BASKET

Bring donations of non-perishable food to the Love Basket, located in the back of the church. The offerings are taken to the food bank at SMUM.

Point out the basket to your children when it is brought to the altar with the other offerings, and invite them to help you choose food to put in the basket next week.

Donations of toiletries (including sample or hotel sizes), paper products, and diapers are also very much appreciated.
